

THE ENAXIS ADVANTAGE

WHO WE ARE

ENAXIS CONSULTING IS THE PREMIERE PROVIDER of management consulting, outsourcing advisory and technology advisory services. Headquartered in Houston and founded in 2002, Enaxis Consulting has an extensive client roster of Fortune 500 clients.

At the center of our vision, Enaxis Consulting (“Enaxis”) provides strategic counsel accompanied by accountability for success. In performing business analysis and research for large corporations, our consultants bridge the gap between strategy and implementation. We work together to deliver significant and sustainable performance gains.

OUR APPROACH

Enaxis is shaped by two basic principles: credibility and value, and we believe that ethical, objective and straight forward advice is our obligation to our clients.

Our credibility is demonstrated with each engagement through the use of a structured approach, methodology and integrated strategy.

When it comes to value we offer the highest quality a global firm can provide without the global-size and overhead. Our clients recognize the integrity, effectiveness and efficiency our consultants deliver during all phases of the engagement.

OUR CLIENTS

A representative sample of our clients include: CenterPoint Energy, Chevron, Cisco Systems, Continental Airlines, Dynegy, Hexion Chemicals, Service Corporation (SCI), Shell, Southwestern Energy, Stanford Financial Group and Stolt-Nielsen.
